They're going to help me get over my inactivity here on the forum. So, if you want to help out by opening a topic or 2, that'd be great. If you don't have anything in mind to say, don't sweat it, just throw a post in the ideas forum. Post away.

1) Suspicions mounted recently when they weren't sure who it was under the hood. Did you consider getting an injector cover to hide the engine? 2) I'm not going to make any posts specific to the antique because I'll be bringing my car to an inspection. What does it look like? The year is most likely early 90s. Looking at it, it's a great looking car. Click to expand... Yeah, doesn't look like it's been crash-tested. So,
